June 2018 Events/News/Reminders

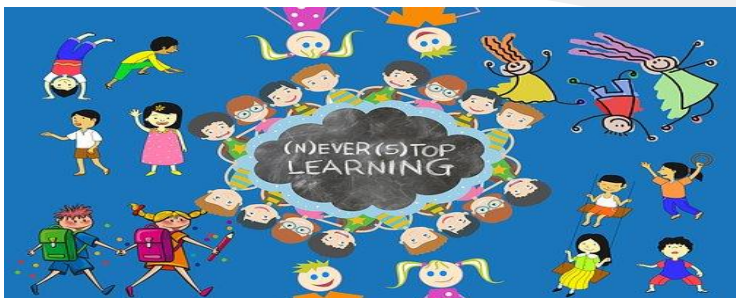

Attendance Requirements

Participants enrolled in our free, scholarship, summer program can ONLY miss five days per calendar month. Participants absent for more than five consecutive days (without contact from the parent/guardian) will be removed from our scholarship program. If a special situation arises, requiring your child to miss camp for a prolonged amount of time, please call the center and communicate with the teen supervisor. We reserve the right to remove a participant due to behavioral issues. If you have any questions about the grant attendance requirements, please call the center. *Teens that do not meet their attendance requirements will not be eligible for any grant sponsored, free field trip opportunities.

Continued Academic Success

Teens participating in our summer program benefit from our on-site tutors. During the summer program, our certified Pinellas County instructors will promote reading, facilitate S.T.E.M. education and implement other disguised learning techniques. Our academic activities and programs are designed to help fight summer learning loss, so make sure to keep your teen involved! Invest in your teen's future by keeping them engaged in our safe and structured summer enrichment program.

Summer Camp Opportunities

Can't find anyplace to keep your teen safe and engaged this summer? Now you can. City of St. Petersburg recreation centers offer middle school youth an opportunity to participate in an active, structured teen camp environment. Each one of our middle school camps offers a wide variety of recreational activities, art, community service and loads of other innovative programming that will have your youth excited for camp daily! Camp begins on Tuesday, May 29, and runs through August 10, with hours from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Visit any recreation center for more information!
